

FALKNER HOUSE

Y5 and Y6 v Hill House

Monday 24th March

Year 6 Rugby

In an electrifying match up, Falkner House battled fiercely against Hill House, resulting in a thrilling 35-35 draw. Both teams displayed remarkable skill and determination throughout the game, with each try met by an equally impressive response. Two tries by Hamish coming from a beautifully crafted passing maneuver both times almost identical. Despite the deadlock, spectators were treated to a spectacle of fast paced action and exceptional teamwork from both sides. Falkner House and Hill House showcased the true spirit of touch rugby, leaving fans eagerly anticipating their next encounter.

Year 5/6 A Team Touch Rugby

The Y5/6 A team match against Hill House was an end to end affair with many champagne rugby moments. On attack Falkner House were expansive, moving the ball quickly through the hands. When running with the ball they regularly pressurised their opponents looking for a weakness in Hill House's defense. Hill House however, were equal to the task, stopping any scoring opportunities on a regular basis and the game was scoreless at the end of the first half.

The start of the second half continued in the same manner as the first half, and as Hill House tired Falkner House took this opportunity to apply pressure and score the first try. This only seemed to fuel Hill House to focus more and late into the second half they were able to equalize. Hill House continued to apply pressure, but Falkner House weathered the storm and were able to score twice again. The game ended in a 15-5 win to Falkner House.

Year 5/6 B Team Touch Rugby

The Yr 5/6 B team faced Hill House at Holland Park. The boys were very nervous, and it showed at the start of the game, with Hill House taking the advantage and scoring 2 tries early. That's how it stayed at the half, 10-0 at halftime.

In the 2nd half, the boys did settle down and tried to get back in the game, but Hill House started very strongly and scored another 3 tries. However, they didn't give up and carried on passing the ball, and running forward, pushing for a try. It paid off at the end, Farrukh ran through the Hill House defense and scored a well-deserved try. Final score 25-10 to Hill House.

Overall, the boys started nervously, but did settle into the game. They didn't drop their heads when they conceded a try, and they carried on and were rewarded with scoring a try at the end. Well done!
