

FALKNER HOUSE

Match report Y4 vs Orchard House 4th February 2025

Saracens

The Year 4 Falkner House Saracens put in a fantastic performance against a strong Orchard House side, showing great determination and skill despite a 45-30 defeat. The boys displayed excellent commitment in both attack and defense, taking tags with energy and working tirelessly as a team.

In attack, the Saracens played with real flair, moving the ball well and scoring some brilliant tries. Their support play and quick passing created plenty of opportunities, and they never stopped pushing forward. In defense, they fought hard to take tags, showing great effort and teamwork throughout the match.

A special mention goes to Rory, who was player of the match for his outstanding performance. Rory was relentless in defense, making crucial tag after tag, and played a key role in attack, scoring some superb tries.

Despite the result, the boys should be proud of their performance. They showed great sportsmanship, teamwork, and effort- qualities that will only make them stronger in future matches. Well played Saracens!

Harlequins

In an electrifying display of skill and determination, the Falkner boys emerged triumphant in a hard-fought match against equally determined Orchard House.

The opening ten minutes was very nervy, but as the match went on Falkner House grew in confidence and settled into it with some crunching tackles coming from Alex, Tomasso, Jad and Nicholas. This was matched by some champagne attacking rugby from Alex, Alessandro, Theo and Adam. The teamwork and support play were seamless with supporting players looking for the quick pass or off-load in the tackle.

Despite Orchard House valiant efforts, Falkner House maintained their momentum throughout the match. Our defense remained resolute, thwarting most attempts by Orchard House to breach the lines. Additionally, Falkner House exhibited remarkable discipline, minimising penalties and maintaining control of the game's tempo, going on for the win. The boys should be extremely proud of themselves, this was a fantastic performance from the whole team.
