

FALKNER HOUSE

Y5 and Y6 football vs Hill House 3rd November 2025

A Team

Falkner House A Team put in a fantastic performance in a thrilling 4-3 defeat to Hill House, decided by a last-minute winner. The boys started brilliantly, showing great composure and teamwork to take a well-deserved 2-0 lead. Their passing and movement reflected just how far they've come since the start of the term, a real testament to their hard work and progress.

As Hill House fought back, FHB continued to battle with determination and spirit. Even after conceding late on, they never dropped their heads and kept playing excellent football right to the final whistle. It was a performance full of improvement, teamwork, and pride. One that shows just how much this team has developed.

B Team

Falkner House B Team played an entertaining 5-3 defeat to Hill House. It was a very even contest throughout the game. The boys scored the first goal with very good passing in the buildup. Hill House responded with 2 goals of their own to make it 2-1 at halftime.

The second half couldn't have started any better for the boys, scoring straight from the kickoff. Hill House once again responded with another 2 goals. The boys didn't give up and kept trying to get back in the game. They did get one more goal to give Hill House some concern. But Hill House scored once more to give them the win.

A very good performance from the boys, lots of positives to take from this game to take to the next one.

C Team

In a thrilling football encounter, Falkner House emerged victorious over Hill House with a commanding 5-2 win. The first half saw intense action, with Hill House scoring the opening goal which woke Falkner House up and the team started to move through the gears.

The match remained competitive, but Falkner House's resilience and strategic play; with incredible passes through the lines, ultimately secured their triumph. Hill House fought back valiantly, narrowing the gap with a well-executed goal. But this was to no avail as Falkner House were the eventual winners.

Outstanding performances from Luca, Aarush and Noah, combining so well in the attacking phases. Thomas and Rory were rocks at the back too!